

ENGLISH FOR TEACHERS (A2, B1) 21 st May – 27th May 2017

Sunday 21st May 2017

At 17.00 pm meeting point at Clayton Hotel Ballsbridge for registration at the course English for Teachers and introduction to Programme.

Monday 22nd May 2017

At 9.00 am meeting point at Trinity College Dublin for activity Where in Dublin? (Dublin City Treasure Hunt):

We were divided into groups. My group was Carmen and Ramon (Spanish teachers) and Salvatore (Italian Administrative Director). The activity we had to carry out was aimed at knowledge of Dublin. It was a fun activity that allowed us to socialize.

From 12.30 to 13.30 lunch break from 13.30 to 15.00 Language focus I: Society & Culture (Relevant Vocabulary & Pronunciation).

Tuesday 23rd May 2017

9.00h-12.30h

We were divided into groups for Language focus II: Food and Drink (Relevant Vocabulary & Pronunciation). Project-based Learning: Food & Drink. We learned the names of the most common Irish food and typical Irish drinks

From 12.30 to 13.30 lunch break

From 13.30h-16.15h Field Project: Book of Kells. We visited the famous Trinity College library.

Wednesday 24th May 2017

9.00h-12.30h

Language focus III: Hobbies and Leisure (Relevant Vocabulary & Pronunciation).

We have performed interesting group activities during which we learned the use of words about hobbies and leisure

From 12.30 to 13.30 lunch break

13.30h-15.00h Project-based Learning: Hobbies: Divided into small groups we have carried out activities aimed at knowing the hobbies of the members of the group. We have been exercised to ask specific questions and answer questions.

Thursday 25th May 2017

9.00h-12.30h

Language focus IV: Irish Legends (Relevant Vocabulary & Pronunciation).

We have done an activity that has allowed us to know the most famous Irish legends

From 12.30 to 13.30 lunch break 13.30h-15.00h Project-based Learning: Irish Legends. : Divided into small groups we have carried out activities aimed at knowing the Irish Legends.

Friday 26th May 2017

8.30h-18.00h

Study Visit & Field Project to Glendalough & Kilkenny

Glendalough, in Wicklow (Ireland) is a village located near the site of an ancient monastery. We enjoyed panoramic walks through oak forests, along the lake shore, or steep mountain trails to reach panoramic views of the valley.

Saturday 27th May 2017

9.00h-12.30h

Discussing dissemination strategies. Presentation of Learner's PORTFOLIO. EVALUATION.